

2019 OMAA/OML WEBINAR: Share & Share Dislike: How Does Airbnb & the Sharing Economy Help or Hurt Municipalities?

Thursday, July 18, 2019 – 11:00 a.m. – 12:00 noon

COST: $100 PER REGISTRANT - REGISTRATION LIMITED TO 50 REGISTRANTS PER SESSION. (There is no CLE credit for these webinars.)

PROGRAM OVERVIEW:

Attendees will learn about aspects of the sharing economy, and in particular short-term rentals like Airbnb, that can affect municipalities both positively and adversely. Attendees will also consider factors that should be weighed before implementing regulations in their own communities.

PRESENTER: Marie-Joëlle Khouzam – Bricker & Eckler LLP

As a partner in Bricker & Eckler's Employment & Labor practice, Marie-Joëlle C. Khouzam is part of clients' trusted advisor teams, making sure they understand their legal responsibilities and the risks of non-compliance on a wide range of employment issues. She provides advice on day-to-day issues, helps employers develop policies, conducts onsite training, and defends clients before state and federal agencies and courts. Joëlle is also a frequent author and speaker on developing employment-law topics. Joëlle also serves as the City Attorney to Grandview Heights.

Joëlle is past president of the Ohio Municipal Attorneys Association and serves on the Steering Committee of the Ohio Management Lawyers Association. She was inducted as a fellow of the College of Labor & Employment Lawyers; is listed in the International Who's Who of Management Labour & Employment Lawyers; is consistently awarded the top peer rating of AV-Preeminent by Martindale-Hubbell, and is on its Bar Register of Preeminent Women. She has been included in Ohio Super Lawyers' Corporate Counsel, Employment Law list, Top 25 Women Lawyers in Columbus, Top 50 Columbus SuperLawyers, and Top 50 Women Lawyers in Ohio, and is also named in Best Lawyers in America. She has received the Columbus Bar Association's Community Service award, the Ohio Diversity Council's Most Powerful and Influential Women in Ohio award, and the Northwest Rotary's Woman of the Year award. Joëlle is also a NITA faculty instructor.

Complimentary power point slides will be provided to the attendees.
