

Your quarterly resource for OPERS News

Save Money and Time With ECS Paperless Payments

The ECS-based paperless payment option has real advantages over traditional paper payments and can provide ECS-reporting employers with Significant cost savings in a secure environment.

FIND OUT HOW →

Recognizing All-ECS Counties

Lawrence and Defiance counties have joined the list of all- ECS counties. Keep watching the map through 2016 as we fill in the counties as each receives the all-ECS designation.

IS YOUR COUNTY ON THE LIST? →

Save the Date! Value-Based Health Care Forum

OPERS invites you to attend a value-based health care forum, June 6, 2016, at the Fawcett Center at The Ohio State University to learn how you can get the most out of your health care dollars.

LEARN MORE →

OPERS Education Initiative

You can play a crucial role in shaping your employees financial future. OPERS is seeking your help to better understand the needs of your employees so we can tailor our educational offerings to better serve members throughout their careers.

LEARN HOW YOU CAN HELP →

More in this issue:

1.1.1.1 Updated Re-Employment Forms

The Notice of Re-Employment: OPERS Benefit Recipient form (SR-6) and the Notice of Re-Employment: Retired Elected Official or Appointed Official to An Elected Position form (SR-6E) have been updated and outdated copies should be discarded.

Read more

1.1.1.2 Applying Employer Credits

Credits to your account may occur for a variety of reasons such as overpayments of employer liability, or when a return of unauthorized contributions is completed for one of your employees.

Read more

1.1.1.3 How You Can Help Your Employees Navigate Health Care and the OPERS Medicare Connector

OPERS offers a number of tools and resources to help those who are considering retirement or just in the planning stages. Read on to learn more about these tools.

Read more

